

Zion's Messenger - September 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

A friend of mine told me her story recently about how she had seen God working in a difficult situation. She and another member in the congregation where they are members had been reaching out to inactive members for some time. They were sending notes, sometimes with devotional booklets, sometimes birthday cards, sometimes just to keep people knowing they were not forgotten and that they mattered...including a verse of scripture for encouragement.

One particular recipient of their continuing outreach had been absent from worship or other events for significantly longer than just the impact of the pandemic. There was a special banquet that had been long in the planning and had finally become possible, and that person decided to come. The person sought out the member who had been sending all those cards because they wanted to know who had actually cared enough to reach out! My friend is aware that that outreach has had a positive impact on yet someone else in the family who had been absent, as well. My friend was so pleased that their idea had brought forth “good fruit”, but she was clear that it was God who had inspired the outreach effort and encouraged members to keep up the outreach even without apparent responses.

There are times for me that I am so aware that God has provided for and guided me: insight for dealing with something new and different, strength for a daunting task, energy when I was feeling drained, determination not to give up on something or someone, a spark when I am simply out of ideas. I appreciate and value getting together with friends in my prayer group and being able to share how I see God working in my life and hearing how they see God working in their lives. As we share, our own hearts inspired and energized to “keep on keeping on”.

When you share your own stories with me, it encourages me in my ministry. I have heard that same thing from colleagues: you help us in our own continuing journey and service to God. I've heard from members about how sharing what they see God doing has encouraged them, especially as they see it has made a difference for someone...even when that someone wasn't likely to recognize God in their own life.

If there's a common theme in Jesus' interaction with people, it's helping them to see how God is working in their lives and encouraging them to tell their story to someone. Sharing our own joy in what we do, whether it be with another person or simply coming into the church to take care of something to keep things happening can and does make a difference...not just for the hearer, but especially for the one who tells their story. It's the moment that inspires and keeps us looking for the next thing God is doing. It's exciting, and it fills our spirit.

Another friend of mine once gave a talk at a gathering of Christian friends active in their own congregations about what makes the church really work, what makes it truly a “Christian community”. She identified these characteristics: 1) only one center: Jesus and his mission; 2) members seeking a living friendship with Christ; 3) seeking guidance from the Holy Spirit; 4) having a common ideal in a spirit of self-surrender, trust, and self-giving love; 5) desire to share Christ with the world; 6) praying together. St. Paul writes in his letter to the church at Thessalonica, “Pray without ceasing” [1 Th. 5.17].

It's evident to me that my friend and her fellow members who “prayed without ceasing” saw some unexpected and wonderful results. They understood that an isolated Christian is a paralyzed Christian, and a congregation inevitably is held back by the isolation of members.

When families gather for reunions, there is sharing, caring, encouragement, and joy. Worship and study together, and special reunions—be they fellowship or service events—giving opportunities to share our stories about how we see God working in our lives. What story might you have to share?

Your Sister in Christ,

† Pr. Diane LaFauci

PASTOR'S BIBLE STUDY...coming in October

Brave: Women of the Bible and Their Stories of Grief, Mercy, Folly, Joy, Sex, and Redemption

a book by Alice Connor.

The study looks at over 15 women in different situations, how they handle what is in their path, what they offer to us as we contemplate our own life, and how they are part of God's story.

This is not limited to women in the congregation just because its focus is on women!

This is about God's story throughout the study and is for everyone. Thanks to a generous grant from the Library Fund, this book is available for your study without cost!

Please order a copy for me! I already have a copy of this book

Journey in Faith Via de Cristo

A special opportunity for better understanding of the Christian faith in a weekend 3-day experience in our area in the month of October

Via de Cristo is Spanish for the “Way of Christ”. It is the Lutheran expression of a renewal movement developed within the Church in the 1940s in Spain, and originally known as Cursillo, a Spanish word meaning “short course” in Christianity.

Originating in the Spanish Catholic Church, it is intended to be a step-by-step structured weekend with several talks given by lay persons active in their congregations and a few talks given by clergy in a progression that puts the faith and the work of the church into clearer perspective than one might otherwise have, even in weekly worship and regular Bible study. It has proven to be of great benefit to individuals who attend a weekend, and in congregations where they are members.

This renewal movement exists in many denominations besides the Lutheran Church. In the Roman Catholic Church and the Episcopal Church, it is known as Cursillo. In the Methodist Church it is called “Walk to Emmaus”. The movement also exists in several other denominations, including a cross-denomination experience called Tres Dias (Three Days).

In Berks County, members at Faith Lutheran (Mount Penn), Reformation Lutheran (Reiffton/Reading), and Christ Lutheran (Oley), have found this to be noticeably beneficial for the congregation, not to mention in their personal faith lives. There are VdC communities in many states across the country, as well as in countries around the world. The Journey in Faith community serves Eastern PA. drawing primarily from York, Camp Hill, and Reading areas, and from Delaware.

The fall 2022 Journey in Faith weekend begins Thursday evening October 13, and comes to a close Sunday afternoon October 16. It is held at Camp Innabah, a Methodist camp a few miles south of Coventry Mall, Pottstown, just off Route 100. There is information on the national website: Via de Cristo National Lutheran Secretariat, as well as on the Journey in Faith VdC website and FaceBook page...or simply ask Pastor Diane for more information.

Council Corner

Church Council met on August 9th. The meeting was opened with devotions on the importance of sharing our Christian faith by living a godly life and sharing the good news.

A new book study is coming this fall! Pastor Diane plans to offer a study based on the book, Brave: Women of the Bible and Their Stories of Grief, Mercy, Folly, Joy, Sex, and Redemption, both in-person and via Zoom. More information to come. Please consider joining in!

Sunday School will commence on September 11th. The Christian Education Committee here at Zion's will be offering classes for ages 3 through adult. Please plan to attend and bring your family and friends! The Sunday School program helps to strengthen the faithful, teaches the gospel, and encourages community. And it's fun! We are excited to share new materials for the youth and we would love to see an increase in students. The teachers for this year are:

- Pre-Kindergarten/Kindergarten – Samantha Gruber
- Grades 1-2 – Heather Gring
- Grades 3-4 – Tiffany Gruber
- Grades 5-6 – Faye Heckman
- Confirmation/High School – Mark Dreibelbis
- Adult – Janine Dreibelbis

Please come to checkout Sunday School at 9:15am on September 11th and stay afterwards for an outdoor worship service and picnic. This date is "God's work. Our hands." Sunday, a day that the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America dedicates as a day of service. First responders will be visiting Zion's on this date to help us to celebrate that we are freed in Christ to serve and love our neighbors.

Please remember to submit your "Favorite Foods Sale" order and turn in payment by September 25th! By placing an order, you are not only getting delicious food (sign me up for the hamburger BBQ and apple dumplings!), but you are helping to support the Women of the ELCA, a group of that reaches out to needs in the community and contributes to the needs of the church while growing in their faith.

The Stewardship Committee is working on an exciting program to ensure that our vital ministries are able to flourish and grow. God has called this congregation to be a blessing, and we are responding to God's call. Our giving of self and resources is a reminder of the blessings God gives us through Jesus Christ.

Going forward, the monthly newsletter will be distributed either by mail or email. You may receive the newsletter either way based on your preference. Gardening is cheaper than therapy ... and you get tomatoes.

Author unknown.

Despite the lack of rain, our bumper crop of cucumbers has been followed by a bumper crop of tomatoes. We continue to pick the last of our early cabbage and our beans and peppers. Our fall squash continues to grow, and we have planted our late crop of cabbage.

Our local food pantries continue to benefit from the weekly labors of our volunteers. As always, we will be happy to have any new volunteers that have some time to share. Our time together in the Garden, and the fellowship time when we are finished, benefit both the body and the soul of our volunteers as well as nourishing our community.
