

Zion's Messenger - November 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Most likely, plans are starting to form for holiday gatherings, it being November now. My family seems to be returning to gatherings the way we did them for almost four decades, since we and another couple decided to do Thanksgiving together, rather than travel to extended family. Initially, the kids were small, and we all fit at one table. Then we started having a “kids” table. Much to the delight of both sets of kids, and we took turns hosting the gathering. As jobs moved us several hours apart, we took turns traveling to each other’s homes for an annual “reunion”.

Needless to say, a lot of planning would go into the reunion weeks ahead, and each household would share in offering parts of the meal. The house would come alive as we were reunited for Thanksgiving. When it was our turn to host, I’d start the turkey early in the morning; I’d have the tables set (now the adult kids still have their own table, and the grandparents and grandchildren have another). We’d all join hands for a prayer of thanksgiving and then be seated for the meal. The conversation and laughter brought us close together again, and when we’d finally bring the day to a close, hugs and blessings for safe travel would abound for any not staying overnight with us.

You may have noticed that I generally greet everyone in worship by saying, “Welcome to worship in the House of the Lord!” Sunday worship is, in effect, a reunion of the family of God, hosted by Jesus Christ. The Host invites us to unburden ourselves after the long week’s journey, as we offer our confession, that we might be ready to be open to what God has for us. The scripture readings share what God’s Holy Spirit wants us all to know, and we sing our praises for the Good News in this family gathering.

The service for the day has been planned well in advance; the Altar Guild has prepared the chancel and set the finest vessels on the altar, ready for the holy meal to be served. The Host calls us in a prayer of Great Thanksgiving and invites us to “Taste and see that the Lord is good!”

It is Christ the Host who has, indeed, prepared the finest meal...his Body and Blood given and shed for us! We eat at the Lord’s Table, we share more time together, and we prepare for the week’s journey ahead. The Host’s hug for us comes in the closing blessing, and we are on our way, knowing that we may look forward to the next reunion.

If you’ve ever wondered about how the worship service is put together, reflecting on it as the reunion of the Family of God in the House of the Lord may help to give a sense of how God loves bringing us together for a time of renewal and refreshment, a time of being strengthened for the time ahead...a family reunion that we may want to tell someone about, especially telling someone they are welcome at the next reunion.

May whatever your Thanksgiving plans may be—with family or friends or a quiet day at home—know that the Host’s door is always open wherever you happen to be, and that Christ stands with open arms to welcome you and give you a loving family hug for comfort and energy.

Your Sister in Christ,
† Pastor Diane LaFauci

A word of thanks...

How sweet it was to be honored on October 9th with a special “Pastor Appreciation Sunday” gift! Thank you to the Council for the gift certificate to Boscov’s and to all who have expressed warm wishes and thanks to me, as I serve Zion’s as Transition Pastor. I am truly blessed to work beside you in this time of transition, as the congregation journeys ahead in anticipation of God’s continuing call and plan for the mission at Zion’s.

Stewards of Zion's

The October 2016 issue of Stewards of Faith proposed the following definition of Stewardship:

“Stewardship is our God-pleasing management of the time of grace, natural abilities, spiritual gifts, and physical resources that our Lord has blessed us with and entrusted to our care.”

In our October 9th Stewardship bulletin insert, we shared how one of our members grew to be a steward of his physical resources. Below you will find the full story that this member, Bill Gundrum, shared with the Stewardship Committee. Bill is a steward, who continues to use the gifts he has received from God.

My devotion to God and my dedication to my church started back in the year 1940 in Centerport. My mother and father were instrumental in having me attend Sunday School every week. From 1940 to 1946, I had perfect attendance at Sunday school for six years straight and received six pins to wear on my lapel as recognition. May Lengel Adam was my teacher. My parents always dressed me in a dress shirt and tie and I attended the Centerport church until my parents moved to a farm in Perry township.

Following our move, I started attending Sunday school at my new church, Zion's Windsor Castle. Again, I attended Sunday school and church every week. Back in 1946, Zion's church held two different services every other Sunday. One week it was a UCC service and the next week it was a Lutheran service. I attended both. I was confirmed in 1948. I remember my family always parked our car in the grove which was across the street from the church.

I was actively involved in the church from an early age thanks to my mother volunteering my services. She said that I would be happy to serve the church. I was acolyte for many years and served so long that my gown eventually was above my knees before I was allowed to stop. Whatever mom said is how it went. Later in life, my mother and I would serve on church council together for several years during Pastor Langkamer's tenure.

Some Sundays my family was only able to give a dime in the offering plate due to low funds. However, my parents instilled in me that you always support the church with what you are able. My parents were Christians and their children were also raised as Christians.

My faith and attendance at church has always been a source of comfort for me. I enlisted in the United States Navy in 1955 and served all my years in the military on an aircraft carrier, USS Lake Champlain. I remember spending two Christmases out at sea. One Christmas eve I remember missing my family and church very much. I had never missed attending a Christmas eve service with my family. That year was a first. I missed my church very much. I remember praying under an airplane wing and getting by with my thoughts regarding my Christian upbringing, my many years of being part of my Christian family and especially thinking of my mother and the Christian values she instilled in me.

Throughout my life the Lord, Christianity, and my parents provided me with direction and a moral compass of how to live a life where God is always at the center. For as long as I can remember, I knew the difference between right and wrong. If I ever did anything wrong, I knew it and would pray for forgiveness. I didn't grow up with a large amount of money, but we had something much greater in our family. We had love, God, and Christianity. The wonderful memories I have will never leave me as long as I live. The Lord and my family will always be number one in my life thanks to the Christian values my mother and father instilled in me.

B. Gundrum

Council Corner

Zion Church Council met on October 11. It was attended by President Tiffany Gruber, Vice President Mark Dreibelbis, Secretary John Smith, Treasurer Sandra Moroney, Brian Moroney, Heather Gring, Faye Heckman, Carolyn Hollenbach, Janine Dreibelbis, Lucille Gough, and Pastor Diane.

The Budget and Finance Committee presented a preliminary draft of the budget for 2023. This was discussed and will be revised and presented again at the November meeting.

The Stewardship Committee reported on the current stewardship appeal including the letter writing campaign and intent cards.

The Property committee reported that they are working on the heating system and front door locks. They are considering replacing the altar lighting with LED bulbs to reduce the labor needed to change the incandescent bulbs which burn out frequently. Church security including lighting, signage, and security cameras was discussed, and there will be further discussion between Council and Property Committee.

Worship and Music Committee recommended that we have two Christmas Eve services this year. Based on attendance numbers of the past several years, it was decided that there will be a 4pm and a 7pm service.

Council approved the Scout Troop request to start a troop for girls. This would be part of the current troop, but would function as a separate group with its own leaders.

Council voted to return left over sound system equipment to Bruce Rohrbach (the previous organist) at his request. He had installed some of the equipment years ago to help up-grade the sound system and provided input when we were getting our new system.

Approval was granted to allow Blue Mountain Heritage Chorus to use our facility for practice. They will make a donation to the church.

The Annual Congregational Meeting is scheduled for January 22 with a snow date of January 29.

Garden News

“No spring nor summer's beauty hath such grace,
As I have seen in one Autumnal face...” John Donne, “Elegy IX: The Autumnal”

Autumn is here, and we are wrapping up season #8 in the Garden. We have harvested over a ton of vegetables to donate to local food pantries and organizations, including the Northern Berks (Hamburg) Food Pantry, Schuylkill Valley Food Pantry, Keystone Military Food Pantry, Hamburg Salvation Army, Wyndcliffe Apartments, Friend Inc., and Opportunity House.

We got better at using the landscape fabric covering this season, which really did help keep down the weeds and keep the produce cleaner. It was a very hot summer, and the tomatoes, cucumbers and beans seemed to enjoy it. Sadly, the neighborhood crows enjoyed many of our seeds and seedlings this year, which impacted our productivity but didn't dampen our spirit. As this newsletter goes to production, we are harvesting the last of our late cabbage planting and finishing our Garden clean up.

We continue to be thankful for our faithful volunteers, both returning volunteers and some new volunteers this season. Without the support of congregation and community members, we would not be able to continue this ministry.

Please continue to pray for our ministry and for the hungry in our community. Thank you.
